

what happened from june 25, 2010 to june 18 2011

POSTED: June 19, 2011

School of Ballet Arts would like to recognize Daniela O'Neil for Best Student and Ballet 1 for Best Class.
A Special Mention to Jasmin Consuegra, Paola Diaz, Taylor Loftus and Lauren Pagano for their exceptional work!

-- POSTED: June 13, 2011

School of Ballet Arts' production of Coppélia was an incredible success! All of the students were wonderful. Their hard work really showed. They should be very proud!

The guest artists were superb!

Thank you to everyone for helping to make this show happen! Without parents/guardians and friends, productions like this are next to impossible to produce! They too, should be very proud!

See pictures on Facebook

-- POSTED: June 11, 2011

Opening night of Coppélia was exceptional. Luckily, there is one more performance TONIGHT. Tickets are available at the door and can be purchased by cash or checks only! The performance does start ON TIME, so come early to beat the line at the box office.

-- POSTED: June 10, 2011

OPENING NIGHT of Coppélia. Nieser Zambrano and the production is featured in an article in the Palm Beach Post (Online pbpulse).

-- POSTED: June 9, 2011

Theatre rehearsals start at the theatre for Coppélia.

A tech rehearsal can be grueling for the dancers because they are long and they constantly have to stop and start in order to set lighting cues, move and set up scenery and for the crew to learn also the show. Remember that the dancers have been rehearsing the show for months. The crew only has an extremely short amount of time to learn what they have to do.

Luckily, the dancers are well rehearsed and ready to go!

-- POSTED: June 7, 2011

Registration for next Fall is Saturday: July 16 from the 10am to 2pm!

With increased interest about fall classes from new students it is very important to reserve your space NOW ...If you are interested in returning to School of Ballet Arts this fall!

Fall classes start on August 15th.

To reserve your space in class
...REGISTER NOW!

-- POSTED: June 2, 2011

Coppélia* opens this Friday – June 10. Do you have your tickets?

With this production, School of Ballet Arts Founder and Director Deborah Marquez will be raising the standard for excellence. Coppélia features incredible guest artists, magnificent sets, beautiful costumes, superb choreography and unforgettable music.

Guest artists and her students have been rehearsing and working to make this an exceptional show! DO NOT MISS IT!

-- POSTED: May 2, 2011

This past week has been very intense but extremely fun! School of Ballet Arts has had the pleasure to be rehearsing with Guest Artist Nieser Zambrano (formerly with the National Ballet of Cuba).

Just in his early 20's, saying that he is a phenomenal dancer is an absolute understatement! With incredible extension and exquisite feet, he jumps and turns with complete ease!

Mr. Zambrano is dancing the role of Franz in School of Ballet Arts production of Coppélia.

Other guest artists include Daniel Deal and Tim Snyder.

See rehearsal pictures on our Facebook page!

-- POSTED: April 22, 2011

Happy Easter!

-- POSTED: April 18, 2011

Happy Passover!

-- POSTED: April 14, 2011

Thank you to GPS Public Relations and Social Media for helping School of Ballet Arts get the word out on Coppélia!

-- POSTED: April 2, 2011

Rehearsals are underway for the End of the year production of Coppélia. The three-act by ballet is one of the oldest known. Coppélia is a the very popular comic ballet. Its music was composed by Delibes and choreographed by Arthur Saint-Léon. The story was written by Arthur Saint-Léon and Charles Nutter after E.T.A. Hoffman's Der Sandmann.

Coppélia's premier in 1870 was an immediate success – it was a great relief from the heavy, more sad ballets of that time. Coppélia was the last triumph of the Paris Opera before its precious title of "the leading city of dance" slipped through the cracks.

The music is memorable. The sets and costumes are beautiful.

-- POSTED: December 19, 2010

The performance for The Nutcracker was a huge success!

Thanks you to all the parents, guardians and friends who helped make School of Ballet Arts' production of this holiday classic wonderful. All students were exceptional. Guest artists Maurico Canete, Thiago Castro and Joseph J. Bucheck III brought their renowned talent and experience to the stage with such great flair!

Extra special thank yous to Marie Hale for costume rentals, Claudia Cravey for her valued experience with teaching and coaching coaching and Lynda Swiadon who helped from teaching, setting choreography to helping backstage. ...And of course to everyone from the set designers to Josh Gumbinner for exquisite lighting and masterful stage managing.

The Crew at Wellington Community High School was beyond professional and very helpful from the load-in, rehearsals, run of the show to the load-out. Joseph J. Bucheck III did a wonderful job with the Program Guide and with much patience, handled ad designs.

-- POSTED: November 11, 2010

Rehearsals are going well and the costumes have been fitted. The Nutcracker is getting close to being ON STAGE!

Guest Artists Thiago Castro has been working with his partners. Joseph J. Bucheck III will also be performing.

-- POSTED: September 21, 2010

Rehearsals have started for School of Ballet Art's production of The Nutcracker. Rehearsals are posted on the bulletin board at the school office.

Information about advertising in the Program Guide is available at the School office!

-- POSTED: September 18, 2010

Lynda Swiadon taught Level 1 on Friday: September 17, 2010. With here vast knowledge and positive energy, it was wonderful to have her in the classroom! She will be teaching on a regular basis at School of Ballet Arts.

--- POSTED: September 3, 2010

Please join School of Ballet Arts at the Childrens Fashion Show in the Center Court at the Wellington Mall on National Grandparents Day

...Sunday, September 12, 2010. The event will have lots of exhibitors (including School of Ballet Arts), activities and excitement.

The event is sponsored by Portada and Nima Creations.

-- POSTED: August 2, 2010

FALL CLASSES STARTED TODAY. There is still space is classes Register NOW!

-- POSTED: August 1, 2010

FALL CLASSES start tomorrow! Register NOW!

-- POSTED: JULY 31, 2010

FALL CLASSES for Children and Adults begin on August 2, 2010. Register NOW!

-- POSTED: JULY 30, 2010

The Summer Session is over with great success. Students from all over attended the many classes offered at School of Ballet Arts.

-- POSTED: JULY 28, 2010

School of Ballet Arts Director Deborah Marquez meets with Marie Hale, Lynda Swiadon and Claudia Cravey as they discuss the fall scheduling, music and student placement.

-- POSTED: JULY 13, 2010

GRAND OPENING is and first classes are soon!

Summer Ballet Program begins July 10, 2010 through July 30, 2010. Two weeks, every weekday for ONLY $50.00!

Registration for Summer Program is Saturday: July 17, 2010 from 1:00pm to 6:00pm.

REGISTRATION FOR FALL SESSION

is July 30, 2010 from 1:00pm to 6:00pm.

Contact us for more information.

-- POSTED: JULY 6, 2010

Construction is underway as the mirrors are installed and restroom completed. The marble floors are being installed to be sealed and buffed. The state-of-the-arts dance floor will be ready soon!

-- POSTED: JUNE 25, 2010

As the lease is signed, plans are underway for the build out of the School of Ballet Arts.

Located in West/Central Palm Beach County in Greenacres, FL, School of Ballet Arts will be at the crossroads of two major highways and easily accessible from West Palm Beach, Lake Worth, and Wellington ...And located near shopping, entertainment and dining!

The School will feature world-class teachers, renown guest teachers and will cater to advanced and dedicated students, as well as, intermediate students and beginners.

Look for adult classes too!

